I met Sally in 8th grade at St James. We were friends for a few years as she helped me deal with my mother's severe depression. Sally was such a happy and supportive person. I moved back to New Jersey but Sally was in my heart. Recently I thought of her and wanted to try to find her. Sadly I missed her. I will always remember Sally.

I just read the Decatur Tribune and am in shock over Sally's passing. She was such a great friend to me. I was in her wedding as she was in mine. Whenever we got together, which was quite often, it was always such a good time. I last spoke to her when I phoned about her father's passing. It was nice catching up and reminiscing. To her family, may the good memories she left you give you comfort. Love and prayers, Mary Lynn Rice Sedlack South Carolina

I am so very sorry to hear of Sally's passing. We had such fun adventures together, including her teaching me how to drive a stick shift, travels to Chicago, Normal and Kentucky, double dating to Prom and getting stuck in Lake Decatur in Guy's sunfish! Sally always had such a fun, positive attitude. I am holding you all in my thoughts and prayers.
