I was sorry to learn today of Lynda's passing. Lynda gave me my first job, as a baby-sitter, on bowling nights and one summer. They invited me over after the last baby was born so I could meet her. My heart is full for all of you. Christina Smith

Please accept my heartfelt condolences on the loss of our loved one, Lynda. We were great friends for a long time, as Lynda's Mom and Grandmother bowled with my Mom, Eileen. I moved away from Decatur for school, and lost touch with Lynda, but I've thought of her so often thru the years... especially the last few times I went bowling. Many blessings, and much Aloha to you all.32
