During the late 1950's and early 1960's, Cousin Jeanne did so many special things for my siblings and me. She put some pizzazz in our childhoods with her high energy, infectious laughter and positive encouragement!!!! She introduced us to ice cream Dilly Bars, chauffeured us to the Pana and Taylorville pools for extraordinary days of swimming and took us out to dinner at one of Decatur's better eating establishments. Everywhere we went, people loved Jeanne and gravitated toward her powerful personality. She will continue to be an incredibly inspirational role model for me. Jeanne will live forever among my fondest memories!!!! Cousin Mike.
