Erma I. Dipper Clark

MAY 24, 1923 - AUG 29, 2019

Erma I. Dipper Clark made her transition on August 29, 2019, at home with friends by her side.

Erma was born to George Dipper and Fay Hallett Dipper on May 24, 1923, in Decatur, Illinois. She graduated from Decatur High School and attended Brown's Business college.

Surviving are 3 daughters Christina Collier, Suzan Boyd (Ed Sellers), and Rebecca Boyd. She has 2 grandsons Michael Burns and Adam Sellers. Erma was preceded in death by her parents, brother George Dipper, husband GA Clark, granddaughter Melissa Burns along with son-in-laws Clarence Collier and Al Florence.

Erma loved reading, playing bridge, and was a great animal lover, especially cats.

A special thanks to Dr. Tim Miller and Harbor Lights Hospice for their outstanding care.

A graveside service will be held Sunday, September 15, at 1:00 for family and close friends at Fairlawn Cemetery. Following, friends are welcome to visit the home for a celebration of her life.

Memorials may be made to Forsyth Public Library District, 268 S. Elwood, P.O. Box 20, Forsyth, IL 62535, or the Macon County Animal Control and Care Center, 2820 East Parkway Dr., Decatur, IL, 62526.

Bill Land posted:

So sorry to hear of Erma's passing. Mom and Erma became friends in 1951 when they lived in Maroa. Mom told the story that Becky wouldn't want mom to bring my brother Charles with her, because he would mess up her horses. My sister Carrie remembers riding in the convertible. Erma did love her cats and her Charlie Rose.
