I went to Roosevelt Jr. High with Jenni. She was a great friend of mine. We moved abruptly to Texas and for personal reasons I couldn't tell anyone bye. I've always thought of her and our friendship. Your family is in my prayers.

We share with you the agony of your grief, the anguish of your heart finds echo in our own. We know we cannot enter all you feel nor bear with you the burden of your pain; we can but offer what our love does give: the strength of caring, the warmth of one who seeks to understand, the silent storm-swept barrenness of so great a loss. This we do in quiet ways. That on your lonely path you may not walk alone" (From Meditations of the Heart, Howard Thurman).??????????

Jennifer was one of my first and longest friends; she reached out to me when I was just a shy junior high student struggling to put myself out there and make friends, and for that, I am forever grateful. So much around me reminds me of her: our shared interests, anything St. Louis Cardinals or American, and much more... We have shared countless moments together, and I miss her greatly, but those memories will live on... Jennifer cared so much for others, especially her family, friends, and furry companions; she loved hard and brought smiles to all she encountered. Her laugh, her passion, and her love for life were contagious, enriching the lives of all who knew her, myself definitely included. It was impossible not to have fun and feel happy in her presence. I will never forget this amazing, beautiful person that I was blessed to get to call my friend. I will continue to hear her laugh and see her smile; I will continue to think of her whenever I watch shows or movies that we loved, listen to our favorite songs, play games, hear a funny joke or a good quote, or watch baseball. Jenni, you will live on forever in our hearts...Love always,Mandy and Marshall
