Bev, Terry, Chris and family, My heart goes out to you all at this difficult time. When I think of Bill, I remember what a great paperboy he was. He always delivered the paper, and came around to collect like clockwork. And I remember watching him learn all sorts of things as he and Terry worked around outside together. I remember thinking what a wonderful young man and son he was. May those warm memories and many others comfort you at this difficult time.

I'm so sad to hear of Bills passing at such an early age. My heart breaks for my son who has lost his father and his brothers and Kay, also Bills mother and father and family that also lost him. I was Bills first wife,way back when. I do have a good memory to share for this time of year. It was our first Christmas together as a married couple. We had bought our presents, wrapped them and put them under the tree. We were too excited and couldn't wait for the other to open the gifts and ended up opening all of the presents before Christmas and had to go out and buy more so there was something under the tree for Christmas. He will be missed by many.

My prayers and thoughts go out to the Ellis family. I was blessed to know Bill in grade school at St Thomas where he was in my class. He was always so kind, and nice to everyone and my heart is breaking for his parents who used to sit near my parents and family at church and his brother Chris who was in my sister Kara's class. May God comfort everyone at this time.
