Jo Anne was one-in-a-million. I knew her best as a golf buddy—and she was good—she could really hit that ball. One day we had a foursome during which we all got very mixed-up—our players were Jo Anne, Joann Swanson, Joan Kenny and me, Joanne McCarthy—(all variations of the same name) and we never did get the scores written down correctly! She brought Logan to my S.P.A.R.K. bus (a school district family literacy program) and from a distance I have followed his very good career ever since. She had such a wry sense of humor and I can still hear her voice making some very outspoken and hilarious comments. But there was no doubt about the great love she had for this beautiful family. May she rest in well-deserved peace.
