I read online this morning in Colorado Springs that my neighbor, Sue, had passed away. We lived across from Sue, Jay, and Brian on Indiana Court for several years and then visited with her when she shopped at Kroger. She was so proud of her grandchildren. We will miss Sue. May her family find peace and comfort.

To Sue's family, You are in my thoughts and prayers today. Sue and her husband were great folks and I used to see them at the "old" McDonalds on Eldorado, many years ago. I always enjoyed visiting with them there. I remember them bringing in their grand-daughters a few times. Those were the good old days. With Deepest Sympathy, Jerry T. Cross
