I am deeply saddened on my favorite Uncles passing. Growing up in Decatur I have fond memories of him taking me to ball games in Saint Louis, Fishing on his boat, and even sitting with him when he worked on the railroad at his tower office. He was a second father to me. He always had advice to give and a hand to lend growing up. He is the last of 6 children from my grandpa Carter and grandma Laura Russell. They are all gone now but memories will live on forever. I will miss you Uncle Roy.... Please say hello and tell Dad his is greatly missed as well as all other family members in heaven. Until we meet again.....
