Danny was my baby brother. He was a lot of fun and kind of sensitive as a little boy. We played tag, hide and seek, cowboy and Indians. We would often play in the barn on the farm we grew up on. I loved the baby kittens. He loved the hay mow and we would jump off the bales of hay and hide from one another. I will miss him dearly. He was much too young to have died. But I know we will see him again when Jesus comes and reunites us.

Danny, Was one of my best friends during my High School years. Very competitive, if he couldn't beat me at running, he would tackle me or trip me during our gym class runs. Eventually I paid him back with my own trips and tackles. We eventually became good friends. Having such a competitive spirit I am sad to see hear of his passing and I'm sure Heaven got a great athlete. So I hope the Angels know, what they got as he's sure to make Heaven a better place. Condolences to the family. Mark Maser Stephen Decatur class of 1973
