She was truly a servant of God, and was the most honest person ever! I am so glad her sister Debbie called her old buddies and we all got to visit her and reminisce! She remembered everything from 40 years ago. We both started at the Holiday Inn in 1976! Friday nights at Carol's were SO much fun!!

Carol was one of the nicest, most sincere people I've known. In the past twenty years or so, I haven't been in close contact with her, but these few weeks of reconnecting were so precious. I will treasure them, and I thank God for them.
