I can't remember a time when I didn't know Mr. Wolfe (and, yes, I know he has told me many times to call him Don). He was the same calm and steady force in my youth and young adulthood as my dad and my father-in-law. I vividly remember our MYF trip to Montana – and all the stops going and coming. He seemed to have as much fun as all of the teenagers combined. I will miss his smiling face at church. I will miss him. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. Sue Edmonson Smeltzer
