I would like to extend my most sincere sympathies in response to the passing of Craig Kroll. As cousins, Craig and our families celebrated many holiday gatherings in the late 1960's and early 1970's. I will forever remember Craig as a young boy opening presents with a tinsel covered Christmas tree in the background. Condolences, Mike Giles.

Craig was friends with my husband Earl Clifton. We used to hang out with him and his wife Paula Doyle Kroll. Good times! Craig was the mover with Clifton Moving & Storage, along with my brother John P. McNamara, that moved me from Wisconsin to Decatur in 1996 and we have all been friends since. He will be missed by all.
