Marilyn was our most favorite person to visit with and to know. We always had a great talk, no matter what the subject was about. We covered it all too. She will be greatly missed by us and everyone who knew her. She is pain free now and Chuckie is at her feet. Mitch you know our prayers are with you and the family.

We will surely miss her, a favorite Cub fan at Arrowhead, was a wonderful person to talk to. Rick and I will always have great memories of listening to the game at the campground. And letting each other know if the Cubs won. Sorry for your loss. We will surely keep you all in our thoughts and prayers.
