Where do I start...a woman of life, integrity, adventure, joy, love & kindness, and mystery. An artist who had passion for so much. Think that's how we bonded as quickly as we did. When I first met Diane I was a student in the EMS program. She filled me with hope & also lifted me spiritually and cheered me on through everything. She pushed me in my beliefs and goals. My boys also had the privilege to get to know her as well. They too fell in love with her as easily as it was for me too. She called me angel..although I know I wasn't her only angel. I reminded her always how beautiful and strong she was as well as her too being an angel. I can't help but feel an emptiness inside knowing she isn't here physically. We all can be at peace inside knowing she is with our Lord. She knew she was ready and I think spiritually it eased her in her last days. She loved her family and friends and her devotion to us all proved she was a woman of her words. Brad, SHE LOVED AND ADMIRERD YOU WITH EVERYTHING SHE WAS !!! cannot make her service because of work but wanted to give my deepest condolences to everyone who loved this BEAUTIFUL woman. There is no death, only a change of worlds- Chief Seattle May God speed, with love & respect, Angela McMullen, Jeremiah & River

There are so many things I could say about Diane that I'm not even sure where to begin. She was an amazing woman who always had a huge smile for everyone who met her. She would always be the first to make you laugh when you were down and despite how bad she felt at times, she would still smile and make jokes. I feel so blessed to be related to her and I will miss her laughter, her sweet voice calling me baby doll and her words of wisdom. She was too good for this earth and I know she's looking down at us all as the angel she always was. I will miss and love you for the rest of my life!
