I am going Virginia's smile and her ribbing that I took and gave to her daily at BP. She was a great lady and loved by many. I would sometimes bring her back a T-shirt or keychain from my various travels. I was shocked to hear of her illness and passing. I miss her and will continue to miss her. Virginia was always a blast to work with! So funny and never met a stranger. She did have unusual things happen in her life but her telling the story of the event kept us all laughing. Praying for her family. I know she won't ever really leave you. People like her just don't.
