We just became aware of Chuck's passing. Chuck was always there for our parents in Inverness. Whether it was driving them to the airport, helping when Dad's health was failing, or being a trusted friend to Mom by checking her house once she had a stroke and had to move away. We appreciate ALL he did for them and for us. You are missed, Chuck! MaryBeth (Olmstead) Zielinski and Diane (Olmstead) Tremsky

I want to extend my condolences to Dick, Robert and the rest of the family. Growing up on Maple street and knowing Chuck has always meant a great deal to me, he will always be remembered. I remember driving back from Florida in the early 60s and I broke down somewhere in Tennessee, the next day Chuck was there with the equipment to tow me home, that's just the way he was. Peace from an old friend Steve Booth.
