My wife and I moved in next door to Mary about 2 1/2 years ago, and we became friends instantly, We had coffee atleast once a week and I loved hearing her storys and she alway had me laughing before I would leave. I'm going to miss seeing her waving at me every morning from her window, and waving me over a couple times a week to hand me brownies, and root beer to take to work with me. Plus she always had coffee ready just in case I had time to visit. She was truely a good soul and a good friend to me, I am so glad I met her.. John & Phyllis Vogel

My husband and I are neighbors around the corner from Mary. There is a story behind our friendship. My husband was outside one day and heard someone yelling something. He kept hearing it and thought they were yelling "Help!" He decided to take a walk and see if he could find out where it was coming from. Around the corner, he found Mary had fallen in her driveway and could not get up! He helped her into the house and carried her groceries in for her. He wanted to call her daughter or an ambulance, but she would not agree to that. She said she would call her daughter! Since then, she has come to our house with sweets, shared a plant with me, and been a good friend. I had just visited with her the day before she passed away, and we are sad that she is gone. What a sweet, precious person she was! She was always positive, always kind, always smiling! Our hearts go out to her family today. Steve and Gladys Bublitz
