I am sorry for your loss. Your mother Goldie was my mother's room mate at Imboden. I have met some of her daughters but not all of them, but you all have my sympathy.I know Goldie has been at Imboden for several years and she had her good days and her bad. I hope all of you can put her bad days a side and let her good days on this earth and the fond memories of them speak to your heart and comfort you.With my sincere sympathy, Cindy K

Grandma, we love you so much and will miss you terribly. We were over at your house so much.. justin tending to the cats and kittens you adopted from the neighborhood, jonathan helping you around the house. I remember arguing with you about sweeping the street..lol you always said it made your house look better. I remember bobby whisking you across the street during the ice storm a tree fell and barely missed you guys. man were u fast!! I feel it would have been selfish to beg for you to stay and i know you are safe and watching over us. i miss you
