Chet and family, I can only imagine what a fine young man you raised. Chet, his gentle smile is just like yours and am sure a splitting image. I did not get a chance to know Alex, but am honored to know you. I will pray for you and your family knowing God heals a broken heart! God Bless!

Chet, Mary and Family – please accept our deepest sympathy following the loss of Alex. We will forever remember the times he shared with Eric and his other friends and classmates both on the courts and at the gatherings outside the classroom. His mild manners and larger than life smile served as a beacon to those around him. He has positively influenced the lives of others in his short time on earth. May he rest in peace in the loving arms of the Lord. Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. Max, Sheila and Eric Hollinden
