I remember working with Bridget every Saturday at the DMH Thrift Shop. She always had such a good time being part of the "Saturday Girls". The bunch included Ethel, Harriett, Bernice, Milli, Peggy....and of course..Bridget. She always spoke so lovingly of her family..and for that...I'm sending you my deepest sympathy. Bridget was such a wonderful and fun loving lady. I was blessed to know her through Margaret Murphy. We had many nice visits before and after Granny was gone. She was so proud of her son, Mike, daughter in law Carol and 2 grandchildren. She will be dearly missed but what a beautiful angel she will be. Mike and family are in our prayers. Luanne and Phil
