What a beautiful and remarkable woman. I loved talking to her and boy did she have plenty to say! Gina's presence will be missed greatly. She was such a fighter, and good one at that! She always had a smile for me and was always so encouraging. She loved Jesus and people so much and her faith hope and trust never seemed to waiver. Always confident and always giving God the glory and testifying of his goodness, love and the miracles she experienced in her own life here on earth. I know the hearts of her family are heavy today and the pain may seem unbearable... I am praying for you. She was such a great light to this world and now I am sure ALLLLL of heaven can hear her shouting and praising and telling stories! YOU WILL BE TERRIBLY MISSED GINA! Thank you Gina for your servant's heart, love and prayers...Kandi Kernan

Gina was my cousin. Our family wasn't one that kept in touch much, but I used to work at Farm & Fleet and Gina would come in the store quite often, and we would talk and catch up on things. She always seemed so bubbly and full of energy, it's hard to believe she's gone. But when it's a choice between pain & suffering or heaven,- heaven is better. my heart goes out to her family.
