Donna always told me she lived me. When she returned to our nursing home from decatur. They wheeled her down the hall she was yelling my name. I was so glad she came back.

Donna and I were friends many years ago. I had a lot of fun at her and her late Husbands Parties. We had a lot of laughs together and we also share many a heart ache. We lost contact during the years but often wondered how she was. Then to find out this last year or so that I have also become friends with her Daughter Cherie and Husband Mark. It is a small world sometimes. I was taken back into time with memories of Donna once again. I am so glad she is no longer suffering and is in a much better place. Prayers to all the Family.
