Rest In Peace James. You married my mother when I was only four years old. Never making a difference between the children you had with my mom. You made sure we were all provided for. Going to Wagner Casting everyday. All the countless hours you sat at the kitchen table with me doing home work. To the point I would be in tears by the time we were done. Our education was very important to you. We all turned out ok(Sonja, Bubba and myself)! I'm grateful I got the chance to see you and say goodbye before you passed. Thank you for being my father. My heart is truly heavy over the passing of uncle James as a child I remember him being over protected of us ( Ruby, Jackie, Sonja.) as we played on Clinton St. I remember him and his band Playing in the garage (he loved his music) and he loved to drink his RC. That's the man I am saying Farwell to. REST IN PEACE
