Uncle Bob was one of the greatest uncles ever and I will miss him terribly. He and I shared a birthday along with both of our sons. It was a tradition to talk to each other on our day. There will be an extra hole in my heart forever knowing I never get to share that with him again. I will never forget the sound of his voice nor will I ever forget the hugs we shared when we could living so far away from each other but they will always remain a special part of his memory, just as his laugh will and him calling me "kiddo". I will love and miss you forever Uncle Bob!Bobbie Lynn

Margaret, I just want you to know I am thinking of you at this time and pray that everything goes good for you from now on. I know Bradley doesn't know me anymore, but I am praying for him also. I always enjoyed it when I got to talk to you or Bob when I dropped Bradley off. Marie Critchelow, the former Decatur Public Transit Van Driver.
