Gail was such a sweet lady!! My husband & I were "Blessed" to get to take Gail to church on Sunday's. She Loved the Lord Very Much & always remembered her tithe. If she missed a Sunday she would ask me if it was ok to put her tithe in from the previous week. She loved getting to go shopping & looked forward to getting to "eat out" on special occasions. Her favorite meal was a hamburger, french fries & a "chocolate milkshake" at Mc Donald's, Dairy Queen or Burger King. She Loved the chocolate milkshakes!!! She also had a love for "cats".She liked clothing that had pictures of cats on it. Her caregivers were "so good" to her & she appreciated all they did for her & all her "SPECIAL FAMILY".She always had a SMILE as she "SHARED" what she had done the week before. Her memory was sharp!! All in all She was an AWESOME, Caring. Lady & God has a Wonderful new Angel in Heaven. We will "MISS YOU" Gail but we know you are in Heaven with your parents. Love & Hugs Gail Bob & Brenda
