Alexander Kram

NOV 18, 1957 - JAN 6, 2014

Alexander Kram, 56, of Decatur went to be with the Lord January 6, 2014. His passing was sudden and unexpected.

Alex was the son of Gregory and Luba Kram. He was born November 18, 1957 in the Ukraine. Alex received his electrical engineering degree in Russia. After coming to America, Alex started his own business. Alex was later employed by McKinley Court after spending many years with his soul mate Susann Schmahl. They married January 12, 2012.

Alex is survived by his wife, daughters Oksana (Slavik) Shuli of Chicago, Inna (Viktor) Kovtunovich of Chicago, Angela (Sergey) Kot of Asheville, NC and son Ruslan Kram of Asheville, NC, stepdaughter Jackie (Dan) Zambroni of TX, sisters Lucya and Nadia, brother Volodya, twin brother Michael, 10 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

He is preceded in death by his parents and his grandparents.

Memorial visitation to celebrate Alexander's life will be 4-6 pm Friday, January 10, 2014 at Graceland/Fairlawn Funeral Home.

The family of Alexander Kram is being served by Graceland/Fairlawn Funeral Home, 2091 N. Oakland Avenue, Decatur, IL. View the on line obituary and send condolences to the family at www.gracelandfairlawn.com.

A smile. That is what I will remember most about him, his smile. Every time you went around him, a smile was on his face. It is so unreal that next time I visit Decatur, he will not be there with my Aunt. My prayers are with you (Aunt Susie), his children and his family. I love you Aunt Susie.
