She will be dearly missed. I believe Joan had a personal relationship with Jesus. She was an enjoyable lady full of love, faith, and hope and willing to help anyone find the right dress or outfit at her loyal service to Bergner's all those many years. John 10:10 says, "I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full." She knew Him well and had a full, abundant life. Now she has a new body, a new mind, and a new smile. We are praying for the families, God will see you through. Lovingly,

John and I are so sorry to hear of Joan's death! We lived on Holly Ct, until a year ago. We would stop and talk to her if she were out. I also remember she helped me many times while shopping at Bergner's. I am sure you have many wonderful memories.
