Pamela Jane Daniel

MAR 10, 1949 - MAR 12, 2013

Mt. Zion-Pamela J Daniel, 64, of Mt. Zion, passed away Tuesday, March 12, 2013 in Decatur Memorial Hospital.

Pam was born March 10, 1949 in Syracuse, New York the daughter of Warren and Delores (Eno) Sharp. She married Charles Daniel in 1971 and graduated from nursing school in 1970. Pam worked over 18 years with CHIC Clinic, with St. Johns Home Health and Hospice, and Dr. Minnaganti's office. Pam was a very loving wife, mother, grandmother, and a very compassionate nurse. Her husband and her would love to travel together and would frequently take their grandchildren with them. She loved working as a nurse and cared very deeply for patients no matter who they were. She loved to cook and to watch the cooking show to get new recipes to try. Her family was her life and she fought a good fight. As long as her family was with her she was ready for anything. We will miss you so much, but we know that you are in Heaven with Jesus, watching over us, pain free, and celebrating with Jesus and your parents.

Pam leaves behind her husband Chuck of over 41 years; daughters, Beth Daniel of Jasper, GA, Heather (Dale) Miedema of Gilberts, IL; grandchildren, Andrew, Ryan and Matthew; brothers, Larry (Becky) Sharp of Aurora, OH, Chuck (Ann) Sharp of Winston Salem, NC, and many other loving family members and friends.

In addition to her parents, Pam was preceded in death by several aunts and uncles.

Memorial service to celebrate Pam's life will be 1 P.M. Friday, March 15, 2013 in Graceland/Fairlawn Funeral Home. Visitation will be from 5-7 p.m. Thursday, March 14, 2013 at the funeral home. Memorials may be directed to McGaughey Elementary School in Mt. Zion.

The Daniel family would like to send a special thank you to not only her boss, but her Dr and her friend Dr. Minnaganti and Dr. Ballard for their compassion and care for her. Also to the staff of 3500 at DMH for taking awesome care of our wife/mother. The family of Pamela J. Daniel is being served by the Graceland/Fairlawn Funeral

Pam , I'm missing you more each day. I think of all the things we did as kids and even though sometimes were bad we did seem to enjoy growing up. Sis I' m glad you're out of pain and in God's hands now. Say hi to the folks. Chuck and girls I can not think of what you're going through but the same God that has Pam will help you. Just let Him do it. Love to all Larry & Becky

Sharon and I sorrow with you because of the loss of Pam, your wife and mother. I shared your loss and our church prayed for you last night. We also rejoice with you because she personally knew and loved the Lord Jesus. God freed her from the bonds of mortality to be forever with Him. We have good memories of her and are glad we do. Thank the Lord you'll be seeing her again. Pastor Dick and Sharon Woodworth. John 17:24

Pam and Family: Several years back I met Pam as a nurse. Over the next several years due to numerous health issues I ended up becoming friends with Chuck, Beth, and through multiple stories of Pams I came to know of her daughter Heather. All became the best of friends you could have, making the health issues seem worth it. I will never forget Pam as the compassionate nurse and great friend she was. To all of her family my condolences go out to you as I can't imagine how hard it will be. Bruce Norcutt

To the Family of Pam:I have known Pam since middle school as we were friends from church. We went to different middle and high schools, but connected through youth group at Bible Community Church of Mentor, OH. We know she is with the Lord whom she loved and is joined with her mom and dad, plus she is free from all suffering. Praise the Lord. May you continue to draw strength from the God of all comfort. Our prayers are with you all. "Precious in the sight in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints.Jerry and Kathy (Shook) Matt
