After high school, Uncle Lloyd made sure I had a place to stay while applying for my first job Decatur. I will never forget those great times we had back in the middle 60's. Lloyd had a way of making me smile and bringing laughter to my life. Now that he's gone, it's going to be difficult to think of visiting Decatur and he's no longer there. My heart goes out to the family during these difficult times. May he rest in peace.

Uncle Lloyd was there for almost every milestone in my life... from birth through my confirmation, wedding, military career, and college graduation. Going to Hickory Point Mall will never be the same. Rest in peace, the last of Henry Moeller's children, and child of God.
