Duane, what a blessing to have had your entire family in our life while we were growing up. She had a big heart and even after my parent's passed on, and I moved back to the neighborhood, she often came by. As I liked to think she was looking after my kids and I. Lots of memories of your family and ours from years past. Stay strong, and know she'll continue looking after you from above with Bill, Rick and Roger. And don't you forget our Romper Room stardom!
