I'd known Charlie for over 45 years. We'd bowled together or and competed against each other most of that time. When he installed a bathroom vanity for my wife and I in 1970, his pay was a doubleball bowling bag. At various times over the years, when we used to bowl pot games at Joe's, I'd be trying to quit smoking; but, I'd always "bum" cigarettes from him and he always had one for me (of course, after he gave me his ration of "guff" with it). I know he loved his bowling and golf and did well at it!! Take comfort in your memories of him.
