I'm still in shock that you are gone! You were my Father, my best friend, and the one person that I looked up to the most! You were a great father to me! You always looked out for me. You were always there to help Christy and I when we needed help! I wish I could of taken away all the pain and suffering that you had! I love you very much and my life will never be the same!! You can now finally rest in peace Dad! I Love You!
