So sorry for your loss, I am in Florida and won't be able to attend. Stephanie and I were able to visit with her a couple of weeks ago. She was alert and seemed to enjoy our time together. We were glad we were able to say goodbye. I remember when she used to pick the girls and I up and take us to Arthur IL to eat dinner made by the Amish. I have great memories of your mom. She was always good to me and the girls. I will always have a special place in my heart and memories for her. She had a rough ride in her life but when she knew her children were alright she was finally ready to go be with Eddie again. Safe travels Ruby, I will see you again some day. Hugs to all of you, I know you will miss her too. Love you all heart Kathy & Mike Barnes
