Bobby, I loved teasing you about your Cubs. I will greatly miss you. Bill will miss you also because you never failed to ask about him or speak to him when you saw him. This means a lot to someone who does not know the Lord as his Saviour. Thanks for being such a good friend. Enjoy being in the presence of our Lord. You will be one terrific angel.

Mrs. Juanita Ewing and family: I just wanted to offer my condolences on Bobby's passing. Regretably I cannot attend the visitation or funeral; I will be working. Bobby and my late husband, David, worked many years together on the railroad. I also had the pleasure of knowing Bobby from working in Moberly, MO at the Beanerie where they stayed and ate before marrying David and moving to Decatur. It doesn't get easier, but with time I hope your memories and years together bring you peace. Tracey Rock
