Michelle –This is Hannah front your route at Busey Bank (we always talk about running and our boys). Your co-worker just came in today and told me about your mother's passing. I am so incredibly sorry for your loss. You are a wonderful, friendly person and I am certain you learned that from your mama.I will be thinking of you, your boys, and the rest of your family today and throughout the coming months – praying for your strength and comfort.I know your mother is in heaven right now having the time of her life – healthy, beautiful, and walking hand in hand with Jesus.– Hannah Medley
