Much love to Gerry and the family at this time of loss- it's sad to lose her, but she had a great life. Aunt Bonnie was always a great gal- honest and straight forward- she was never shy sharing her thoughts, but she lived by the golden rule and was truly respectful of others. I remember fondly the many holidays that she and Uncle Bill opened their house to all of us. They sold me my first car- a Dodge Dart with push button transmission! I am so glad I got to talk to her at her 100th birthday- I will always remember her twinkling eyes and her generous laugh.
