Please accept our condolences on the passing of your mother and grandmother. She and I were at St. Mary's and were workers and friends years ago. As sometimes happens, when the work connection was over, we also lost a personal one. My children and I still treasure the ceramic Christmas ornaments she enjoyed making before her arthritis made that impossible. She was a lovely, caring person and I know that you will miss her terribly.Sincerely,Ellyn KremerTracy Kremer Barding

Janet was one of the nicest people we have met. When she greeted you, it was with a caring smile and a warm hug. She was funny, witty and wacky all in one days fun. You couldn't run in to her anywhere that she didn't greet you and have a minute to talk. Our hearts ache for her family, they were all so close and I can't imagine how much they will miss her. We will miss her also and our sympathy goes to all who knew her.

Apologies also that we are unable to attend the graveside due to work schedules. If there is anything we can do please call. Prayers and thoughts go out to the entire family.
