I wish to express my sympathy and prayers to the family at this time. I was privileged to share the Gospel with Anna several months ago. After a couple of weeks of our initial meeting, she told me that she needed to trust the Lord Jesus as her Savior . . . and she did so! The Lord be praised for His grace in her life. I talked with her just before she moved from Momence Meadows and we discussed the fact that she had sincerely placed her faith in Christ alone for her salvation. "Absent from the body, present with the Lord."
