The Hill Family were our neighbors for many years. Cindy and I always played together when we were small. I can still remember this big beautiful tree, a weeping willow in their backyard and we played underneath it. I can still see Mrs. Hill's face. She had such a beautiful smile and was very much a lady. She truly was a beautiful, classy woman. She always reminded me of the actress Gail Storm. If anyone remembers she was from the show My Little Margie. I can remember when it was her birthday and Mr. Hill bought her a new car. We all went out to garage and he opened the door and she was so surprised. There were many nice memories of our lovely neighbors. Although I haven't seen Mrs. Hill in many years, I know she will be truly missed. You never forget good people. So wherever you are (I know she is with the angels) God Bless you and may you rest in peace. And to her family, she will be missed but never forgotten.

I am so sorry to learn of your mother's death. I remember her vividly when she was a young mother and we would make cookies at your house. And, she was always fun to have around and very patient with her little bakers. My deepest condolences to you and your family. Anita Engel

Cindy,I didn't know your mother but I send my sympathy at her passing. After my parents died in 2008 I went through pictures and papers and came to a better understand of how our lives are linked.I am a descendant of Cora Hill Bowman. I was fairly young when she died but I understand that she was important in your father's early years.If you would like to correspond you can reach me by email. May God comfort you at this sad time.Sincerely,Joyce Wolfer Bishop
