Dear Mark & Mary, Eric and Neal: Your Dad and I enjoyed many years together working at Northtown Bank, and he was both a friend and great co-worker. He made each day special and helped me many times over the years. My biggest regret, that I didn't take the time to visit with him. He was so proud of his family and I am glad you all lived close to him. I am sure you will all miss him, but he is in a better place. Milt Brahier
