I was so sorry to read of your mother's passing. Susie and I have wonderful memories of the Queens and Harpers when we were all children. I am so sorry I cannot be there in person to express my sympathy. Our mother died in February and while going through old pictures I came across one of your mom and dad when we were picnicing in the California mountains. Our history goes back a long time. I always thought Geraldine was so pretty. I hope you have good memories too. With all my love – Linda

Jason, So sorry to hear about your grandmother. I know she was a very special person and that you were very close to her. You take good care of Fred now as I know you will. Remember that your grandmother may not physically be here but she will always be watching out for you and your family. Watch for pennies from heaven. Deepest sympathy Kris Smith
