Words can not express how saddened I was to read of your loss. Please accept my sincere condolences to your entire family. It is especially heart-wrenching losing a child. And I know that at this time nothing can really be said to remove the present pain in your hearts. But please know that you can find true hope and comfort in the scriptures, for they reassure us that we can see our dead loved ones again by means of the resurrection. This promised future includes perfect health and everlasting life. And to strengthen our faith in the resurrection, God lovingly had recorded in the Bible at least three instances in which children were brought back to life and returned to the arms of their waiting family (1 Kings 17:20-23; 2 Kings 4:32-37; Luke 8:42, 54, 55). Please take comfort in this hope and the future joy it holds out to you and your family. May you continue to receive an abundance of love and emotional support through this painful period. Most sincerely, C. Edens
