Tom, I wanted to send my deepest sympathies. I cannot fathom what you are walking through right now, but our prayers are with you. I pray that the Lord comforts you in this time of loss and carries you through. Remember only He can provide us with a peace that passes all understanding for there are so many times in life that we don't understand and never will while still on this earth. Be encouraged in knowing you are never alone He is always there..His Word tells us He will never leave us or forsake us. Reach out to Him and you will make it through this.Andrea Lehman
