Dear Sherry and Virg...I am so sorry to hear of your mother's passing. I remember when you would bring her to the bank (old CCB) to get the change orders and she always smiled and laughed with us, what a sweet woman. You couldn't have asked for a better mom. I know what you are going through because, I lost my mom last June and no matter what the circumstance we never want to let go of our mom. My heart breaks for you but, please know that I am thinking of you and your family and that God is by your side just pray and stay strong in your faith. Sincerely, Charlotte Morse
