Myrna, Karen and Aunt Ruth, Grandma Evelyn was a very special lady to those who had a chance to meet her. Luckily, I had the chance to spend time and get to know her. I will never forget her sweet smile, her quick witted descriptions of situations and her work ethic. What a great role model for the children! I was honored to sing at Evelyn's service. Dear Karen, Now both of your loving parents have come full circle to be together with our Heavenly Father. you walked with your Mother every step as she neared the end of her journey. you also gave the the privilege of being with you as she progressed. you will be much comforted in your loss by the memories of the multitude of kindnesses and love which you give to your parents all of your life. Walk gently now through your years ahead of you. Keep in mind that I will walk with you. Love always, MO

Karen, It should be very comforting knowing how well you took care of your Mom in her last few years. I know it must have been difficult but, you did a great job. On our last visit, she was in such a great mood and smiley talking about going out for lunch. It will always be a great memory. Take care of yourself.
