I'll never forget the "lost weekends" we all shared together with our giant breakfasts and jam sessions that lasted entire nights. Those are memories I will always cherish. May you rest well and rise in power.

I recently asked Jeff if there was anything I could help with. His response was, 'yes Darren I would like you to live your highest good...Be the change you want to see in the world'. What a generous soul he has, he will be missed in this world but not forgotten.
