I met Sandi when she worked in Dr. Wasem's office. She was always a glowing woman. Only a family crisis would rattle her. I remember her sharing a beautiful song her son had composed. She always dressed beautifully and her jewelry enhanced everything. I felt sad when Dr. Wasem retired because I knew it meant we wouldn't see each other regularly ever again. My sympathy to all who were her friends. You lost an amazing woman, and I know she will be keeping track of all of you from above. Enjoy every second of life while you can. Sandi had a great faith. I'm sending out love to every person who knew this incredible woman. Sandra Coryell

Sandy has become very dear to me the last 3 years. We have been neighbors for almost 40 years. She used to come sit with me when I was a starved for adult company, poolside at the wading pool in my driveway. She helped sort out the flowers for Renee's wedding. The last 3 years she has become my forever sister friend. I will always remember lunches at Kreckels. The Jersey Boys at the Fox, her infectious laughter and strong willed spirit, her blingy jewelry, and her love of clothes, purses, shoes, and all things black. I love you girl and will miss you more than anyone knows.
