The loss of a loved one is never easy, even if expected. Please accept my sincere condolence and deep sympathy on your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers and the comfort in knowing that your loss is felt by many, help you through this difficult time. May God's blessings be on the grieving family. May you find the courage and strength to move forward and may He grant you peace during this time and provide comfort for all her loved ones.

When i was young and friends with Josh, well I'm still kind of his friend... even though well nevermind Linda and Cliff welcomed all us "kids" and provided a nice place for us to associate.27 years later i remember her kindness, i remember being glad to see them at circuit assemblies and other functions.I grieve with my brother Josh, his dad and their family.Leon

I smile when I think of Linda. No matter how sick she was, I always found her to have a positive attitude. Never complaining on her extended illness in self pity. I know she had her bad moments but never did I see her bringing them out when I had the pleasure of seeing her. She will be missed

I always admired cliff and Linda for the wonderful sweet love that they showed each other. I also remember when I was probably about 13 and Linda and Donna and all of went to Shakey's Pizza a number of times it was so much fun. And the times that I got to spend time at their home. What a wonderful famiy. Can't wait till we our all together again young and fun forever more. ❤️ has so yummy and good

Linda , her name is mentioned and I automatically smile, that is my friend. She helped me learn to take time and enjoy the view as you are working. Talk, visit, become family, and sharpen each other's skills and abilities. She will always make me smile.
