I'd known and worked with Bill at ADM since I started there two years ago. Of all the great things I could say about him, probably the main thing that will always stand out for me was, when I was first coming out to the plant to interview and would be waiting in his guard shack, all scared and nervous, Bill had the most amazing way of just soothing and easing my nerves. He always had an easy 'Hey, everything's gonna be alright' attitude about him. Nothing ruffled his feathers, and no matter how bad your mood might be, he could always turn it around for you. The world lost a truly one of a kind guy. Miss you always, Bill ~ ~ ~
